Hendrickson Trucking Company Earns Safety Award

Hendrickson Trucking Company, a client of Kapnick Insurance Group, was recently presented with the ACUITY 2009 award for Outstanding Fleet Safety Performance. The plaque was presented by Rod Hess, Loss Control Representative at ACUITY and Mark Arbaugh of Kapnick Insurance Group to representatives of Hendrickson Trucking.

“Hendrickson Trucking Company has always prided itself on maintaining an excellent record for workplace safety,” said Jack Durbrow, Treasurer. “We’re pleased to partner with Kapnick Insurance Group who works hard with us to ensure the safety of our employees.”

According to Mark Arbaugh, Vice President, Kapnick Insurance Group, “Hendrickson was awarded 1 of only 45 Fleet Safety Awards given out by Acuity company-wide. Great accomplishment.”

Hendrickson Trucking Company, headquartered in Jackson, Michigan, has been in business 65 years. With 50 employees and 40 trucks they operate throughout southern Michigan and northern Ohio.

ACUITY, headquartered in Sheboygan, Wisconsin, is a property and casualty insurer that operates in nineteen states, writes $750 million in premium through 900 independent agencies, and manages over $2 billion in assets. The only company in the nation to be named six consecutive years to the Great Place to Work Institute’s top five mid-sized companies, ACUITY employs 850 people.
